

PARENT PATHWAY

*Supporting Your Journey
Through a Child's Addiction*

You are not alone

Addiction is a brain disease

There is always hope for healing

Your are in the right place

Having a son or daughter who struggles with drugs or alcohol abuse is an isolating and difficult situation. www.ParentPathway.com was designed by parents, for parents to support you with community, help, information and hope. Keep coming back to these resources and help your entire family regain balance and peace of mind.

JOIN THE Community

Seeking Serenity Blog

Read our blog to connect with other parents who have experienced a child's substance abuse.

Find us on Facebook at parentpathway

Follow us on twitter
@parentpathway

GET Help

Ask the Expert

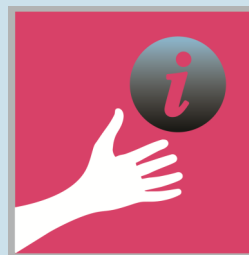

Got a question? Our panel of experts has answers for you.

Parent Helpline

Connect with a Parent Toll-Free Helpline at 1(855)378-4373

Need a Rehab

Find the right rehab with our link to the SAMHSA treatment facility locator.

Obtain Information

Books

Check out our recommended reading list to learn about and manage the issues related to substance abuse.

Products

Find links to drug tests and prescription drug safes that keep drugs away from toddlers and teens.

Breaking News

Read the latest news about substance abuse.

Find Hope

Meetings in a Box

Use "Meetings in a Box" with a group or on your own to help you learn and grow.

Stories of Hope

Read the stories of hope from parents and others who found recovery from their loved ones substance abuse and co-dependency it creates.

www.ParentPathway.com